

more than a workspace
it's a place to grow

A-ha!

Ever have one of those moments at work when everything just seems to click? We love those moments because, to us, an “a-ha!” moment means a professional growth moment. At West Asset Management (aka Accent), we know that professional development means success—for you and for our company. That’s why it’s more than a work space here...it’s a place to grow.
